May this book bring to its readers the memory of happy hours spent beneath the Orange and Black Banner of Pikeville College in 1934-35, and with the memory may there come an unfaltering loyalty to the great principles upon which the College was founded and for which it stands.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF THE

SENIOR CLASS OF PIKEVILLE COLLEGE ACADEMY

In this Year of Our Lord, 1935.

We, the Class of Nineteen Hundred Thirty-five, of the City of Pikeville, County of Pike, State of Kentucky, being of unsound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this instrument to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking and annuling all wills by us previously made as to wit and to half-wit.

Jemima Smith wishes that her ever ready ability to blush may long embarrass Florane Justice.

Leslie Henkel wills his "brain power" to Margaret Shanklin, in hope that she may profit by it.

Jack Baldwin bestows his boisterous conduct upon Vergil Forsythe.

Billy Watkins leaves to Eugene Brown a correspondence course on "How to Make Love."

"Cotton" Brewer bequeaths his excellent voice to anyone who wishes to become a hog-caller.

Bobby Taylor wills his magnetic personality to David Wagner.

To Laurenstine Syck goes Maurice Sturgill's bashful appeal.

Mary May wishes that Betty Hatcher be given her pep, vim, and vitality.

Helen Hambley wishes that Lucy Grottenthaler would disappear at the next magician performance.

Ada Jackson wishes that her overwhelming sense of humor be given to Imogene Ratliffe.

To anyone who can take his place, John Bill Trivette wills his athletic ability.

Chester Hawpe requests that his ability to flirt with the nearest girl be given to Eugene Campbell.

"Sunny" Day wills her passion for small-town sheiks to Mary Elizabeth Sanders.

Howard Rader bequeaths to Emily Amick his ability to curl his locks.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this thirty-first day of May, 1935.

LESLIE HENKEL
JEMIMA SMITH
CLARENCE BREWER.

LES PORTES FLAMBEAUX

The purpose of Les Portes Flambeaux is to become better acquainted with the French people, their leaders, their customs and their philosophy of life.

Programs centering around the lives of great Frenchmen and their influence on civilization afford glimpses of personages who have left a heritage of which "la belle France" may be justly proud. The programs feature current events and topics of the day which help to clarify stories of international problems as "l'affaire Stavinsky," the formation of new cabinets, France's attitude toward Hitler, toward Mussolini et Fascisme, toward the Saar Valley territory, toward Les Ctats-Unis, and payment of the war debt.

One of the chief projects of the club is the international correspondence between students of Pikeville College who study French and those in France and in her provinces who study English. This correspondence has flourished and the letters which the students are constantly receiving help the club members to gain first-hand information of French life.

Occasionally, such momentous questions as war and peace are left to the presidents of the two nations and the club gives the student body a good chapel program or themselves a good party or picnic.

Feeling that all history students are fellow sufferers and therefore bound together by bonds of mutual sympathy, the students and faculty of the History Department met February thirteenth for the purpose of organizing a history club.

Four meetings were held during the semester. The first was given over to the task of organization followed by a brief discussion of current events by one of the faculty advisors. The second meeting was held in Wickham Chapel and consisted of a series of tableaux depicting important events in American history. At the third meeting, three short talks were given by student members. The May meeting, which marked the close of Club activities for the year 1935, took the form of a hike and picnic at Peach Orchard.

The purpose of the band and orchestra is to give those students interested in instrumental music an opportunity to participate in extra-curricular activities in the line of their major interest. Both are new organizations on the campus, the band being organized in November, 1933, and the orchestra in October, 1934.

These organizations furnish music for school functions such as ball games, parties, and chapel programs. They also coop rate with such organizations in town as desire music for programs and social events when music from other sources is not available.

YEA TEAM, FIGHT! FIGHT!

Grand stand sitters found it hard to remain silent when Francis, Allen and Laferty snapped into their "Let's go! Everybody yell! One, two. One, two."

The teams have never been backed by better cheering than in 1934-35, and the players report that the yelling was a great factor in their successful sea-

Coach Waddell is a mountaineer from Tennessee. He came to Pikeville College from Maryville in 1930, having won for himself a name in athletics in student days. During the past five years, he has turned out teams that not only win but that also stand for the best in sports. May Bears, Cubs, and Runts continue to advance under his leadership.

JUB LETTERMEN

Johnson is small and far from heighty,

But on the floor we find him mighty.

Trivette is calm and slow to speak,

But on the floor he's like a streak.

As a center, Leslie's hard to beat; He can play basketbell as well as eat.

Chester acts the role of a handy man.

In the games we won he's played a big hand.

When the Cubs are trailing and are needing some pep,

Watkins is the player to make them step.

Campbell's a scrapper and plays his best;

He proves that a book worm's not tied to his desk.

Rader is calm and seems quite slow.

But give him the ball and watch him go.

Brewer's good at running up the score;

To aid his skill is his powerful roar.

Jack went with the Cubs wherever they went,

And told them money mustn't be foolshly spent.

Taylor's a guard and also a

Give him the ball and you'll hear him grunt.

Alma Mater

Gather 'round, ye loyal schoolmates, lift each voice till echoes ring; Loudly praise our Alma Mater, 'tis of Pikeville C. we sing. And in deepest care or sorrow, should we pause to think of thee, Strong in our hearts once more, as in days of yore, When we sing of our loyalty.

Orange and Black, we hail thee, ever thy praises sing;
Oh, see our colors that stand for honor, and to us victory bring.
Orange and Black forever, we hail thee far and near,
On the field or in the hall, we will answer the call,
For we love thee, our College dear.

PAINTSVILLE KENTUCKY

To the Student Body, Pikeville College:

The generations of the past thought they could just "grow up". The questions of education and character were largely matters of chance.

The progressive revolution now taking place demands:

First, that you build a healthy body, and a clean, honest character, standing always for right, truth, and justice. No life is worth living without these principles as a foundation.

Second, that you get an education. The handicap of ignorance in this age is too dreadful to consider. Hospitals, reform schools, and prisons are filled with persons who lack education. Do not fail to improve your mind. In this era filled with the opportunities of telephone, wireless telegraphy, radio, automobile, airplane, and other miracles of science and progress, you surely must have education to take advantage of such.

Pikeville College, we are proud of you. All eastern Kentucky is honored in the wonderful progress you have made, and while your responsibilities are great, your opportunities are greater. Pikeville's future is in your keeping. Make it glorious.

Our company, taking a page in THE HIGHLANDER, dedicates this page to the hope that the students of Pikeville College will incorporate into their lives the ideals set forth above.
